

ESI DANSO

SENIOR NURSING OFFICER

CONTACT

ohenewaabempomaa@gmail.com

(233) 0548703905

AE-0104-3654 Kwamo,

Kumasi, Ghana

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Presbyterian University

2013 – 2017

Asante Akyem Agogo

SKILLS

Emergency medicine

Infection and Prevention

Control (IPC)

Clinical audits

Newborn Care

Patient triage

Patient relations

IV monitoring

LICENSES

Nurses and Midwifery Council,
Ghana

REFERENCE

Edith Dede Ansah

ansahedith08@gmail.com

Benjamin Ebbuah

benebbua5@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

Senior Nursing Officer Essam Government Hospital - NICU | February 2023 – current

- Administration of medications to both severe and minor sick newborns
- Fed over 10 newborns through Nasogastric Tube and about 50 newborns by mouth
- Education on personal hygiene and care of baby after discharge
- Administration of oxygen to severe and moderately asphyxiated newborns
- Performing gastric washout or lavage
- Monitoring vital signs
- Assisted in the auditing of 5 neonatal death audit.

Nursing Officer Essam Government Hospital - Accident and Emergency | April 2021 - January 2023

- Performed triage for 80% of critically ill patient and ensured timely intervention of health care.
- Supervised 20 student nurses in the performance of their duties.
- Ensured the availability of supplies and logistics at the unit as the deputy head of accident and emergency.
- Conducted ward meetings and wrote monthly reports.
- Assessed, administered, and monitored the effects of prescribed medication for 120+ patients.
- Worked closely with relatives and patients to ensure proper education on disease conditions and treatment plans before and after admission.
- Administered scheduled oral and IV medications and therapies, overseeing pain management plans.
- Administered oxygen and medication to achieve optimum health outcomes.

Nursing Officer Kumasi South Hospital - Surgical Ward | April 2019 - April 2020

- Supported patients with critical conditions, planning and implementing targeted strategies for optimal recovery outcomes.
- Established positive rapport with patients and families through active listening and compassionate care.
- Dressing of surgical wounds, usually 10 patients per day
- Administered scheduled oral and IV medications and therapies, overseeing pain management plans.